FAIR TRADE

There will be a stall in the hall with goods that are fairly traded.
Come and get all you would need for Easter.

Norma McGrory

BOWLS CLUB

There will be no Bowls Club meetings on 22nd and 29th March.
The first of these is to enable the stage to be erected the day before the first of the Murder Mystery evenings and the second is because it is Good Friday. All other meetings will continue as normal.

MURDER MYSTERY EVENING

Calling all budding sleuths! On 22nd and 23rd March at 7.30 there will be a murder mystery evening in the church hall. Come along and watch a reenactment of the evening of the dastardly deed, spot the clues and work out who committed the murder and why and who helped! Tickets £10 and includes supper - available in the church hall Sundays after church, at Octago on Thursday mornings or tel 07761986749

Please support the cast who have worked extremely hard to put this production on. Money raised goes to the Wellness Centre and church funds.

INTRODUCTION TO CRAFTING MARCH 20TH 1.30-3.30PM

This is a new initiative by Stockton Councils Learning and Skills service and is open for everyone in Yarm. Please advertise this as widely as you can among your non church friends and contacts. If there is enough demand it will become a regular group helping to serve our community.
