THANK YOU!

Today's service is the last one to be led by Sheila Hargreaves, as she retires from that role. We would like to thank her for all the hours of preparation and dedication she has put into her years of service. May God bless you especially today - and we're sure you'll find something else to keep you occupied!
With love from us all at Yarm.

FAIRTRADE STALL TODAY

In addition to the usual Fairtrade stall on Sunday 7th December, there is one in the hall after today's service. We have received a restock of Christmas cards, so come and see what's available.

YARM MOTHERS' UNION would like to warmly invite everyone to their Advent Service to be held at St. Mary Magdalene Church at 2 p.m. tomorrow, Monday 24th November. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

CHRISTMAS GIFT SERVICE

This year our Gift Service in support of Harbour (the domestic abuse charity) will take place on 7th December. In the last few years we have asked for donations of Supermarket Gift Cards which the charity has used to be food, toiletries, clothing and gifts for vulnerable families fleeing domestic abuse. These gifts have been hugely appreciated by the charity. This year, in order to give the charity even greater flexibility, we are asking for cash donations. Danielle Chadwick from Harbour will join us at the service and we look forward to presenting her with our gift. Thank you so much for your generosity.'

OCTAGO

Octago is now back in full swing In the School Room every Thursday morning from 10 - 12 noon.

Come and enjoy a chat and laugh in relaxed company. Still on offer are Table Tennis and Billiards for the more energetic, with seated Air Hockey and a free Book Library for the less so.

Or just enjoy a cup of tea or coffee, still costing only £1 per cup. The choice is yours.

We'd love to see you.
